

1 Fill in the gaps with the correct relative pronoun or adverb: who, which, whose, when, where or why

1. Having full service is the reason _____ I always choose resort hotels for my holidays.
2. Meryl Streep, _____ is an American actress, still holds the record for the most award nominations.
3. Rock climbing is an activity _____ needs a lot of courage and strength.
4. Students _____ are planning to volunteer at the Winter Games must give in their names by tomorrow.
5. She is the singer _____ new single went straight to number one in the charts .
6. 1997 was the year _____ Robbie Williams released his first solo single.
7. This film, _____ is about Vietnam, is fantastic.
8. He's the actor _____ played Aquaman.
9. The company, _____ was founded in 1989, has its headquarters in Madrid.
10. The teacher _____ you spoke to is Ms Parks.

2 Complete the sentences using which or whom and the expressions from the list.

1. This forest is full of ancient trees, _____ are hundreds of years old. Some of them have even been here for a thousand years.
2. The school has bought twenty new computers, _____ are going to be put in the library. That's ten more than before.
3. I've got six cousins, _____ live in the same country. They're all scattered around the world!
4. Jill has two cats, _____ are adorable!
5. The university has a small number of well-known researchers, only _____ have won a prize.
6. There are a number of good schools in the area, _____ require an entry exam. Almost all in fact.

3 Choose the correct sentence.

- 1 Our dog, whose name is Butch, is a two-year-old Alsatian.
Our dog whose name is Butch is a two-year-old Alsatian.

2 I'll never forget 2010, when I won my first medal.

I'll never forget 2010 when I won my first medal.

3 The man, whose car was stolen, has gone to the police station.

The man whose car was stolen has gone to the police station.

4 The CD, which you lent me last week, is scratched.

The CD which you lent me last week is scratched.

5 Golden Dish, where Jake and I had dinner last night, is very expensive.

Golden Dish where Jake and I had dinner last night is very expensive.

4 Choose the correct item

1 The smartphone company launched five new products in spite of on account of its fifth anniversary.

2 The reason for why I haven't called you is that I've been busy studying for finals.

3 I guess they are not coming since though neither has replied to the invitation.

4 The documentary was long, but as it was very interesting.

5 All the students were told to leave the school quietly because due to the fire drill.

6 The working conditions in this company are quite good. Since Still, the work itself is not that interesting.

7 Lisa took her credit card with her for so that she could buy a pair of shoes.

8 He closed the door softly so as not to in order to disturb the baby.

9 She took a management course in order to in case broaden her job opportunities.

10 Harry was walking slowly to avoid so that slipping on the ice.

5 Choose the correct item.

1 It was such a so such such an nice day that we had breakfast in the garden.

2 She was talking such a so such such an quickly that I couldn't understand what she was saying.

3 He studied such a so such such an little for the exam that he failed it.

4 John drank such a so such such an much coffee in the afternoon that he couldn't sleep at night.

5 It was such a so such such an good party that no one wanted to go home.

6 There was such a so such such an amusing film on TV last night that I stayed up until 2 am.

7 The knife was such a so such such an sharp that I cut myself.