SINCE, FOR, ALREADY, YET, OR JUST?

FAMILY VOCABULARY

Complete the sentences with: since – for – already – yet – just

1. My sister has lived in London _____ 2019.
2. We have _____ invited our grandparents to dinner.
3. Has your brother called your parents _____?
4. My aunt has been married _____ fifteen years.
5. My cousin has _____ had a baby.
6. Sarah has known her stepbrother _____ they were children.
7. My parents haven't met my new boyfriend _____.
8. Our grandparents have _____ arrived at our house.
9. My uncle has worked at the same company _____ ten years.
10. I haven't seen my cousins _____ last Christmas.
11. Has your family _____ moved to a new house?
12. My brother has been a father _____ three months.
13. We've _____ finished preparing the family dinner.
14. My niece hasn't learned to walk _____.
15. My parents have been together _____ 1995.
16. My sister has _____ told me about her new job.
17. I've lived with my roommate _____ I left my family home.
18. My grandparents haven't visited us _____.
19. My cousin has _____ become a father for the first time.
20. We've been close friends _____ many years.

LIVEWORKSHEETS