

Principal Parts of Irregular Verbs

Read the sentences carefully. Observe the underlined verb, and select the correct principal part from the options.

1. Some artists make models of animals for museums.
2. As they work, they are seeing what the finished model will look like.
3. They know what the animal's skeleton is like.
4. Before they start, they have thought about each step.
5. Their task is no less than to freeze the animal in time and space.
6. Scientists have written their beliefs about the animal.
7. Are you going to the dinosaur exhibit?
8. We were there last week.
9. We thought long and hard about the exhibit.
10. What those artists did is truly miraculous.

