

ACTIVITY 3 | Completing the outline of a classification essay

Read the outline for Essay 4.1 to understand the essay's organization. Use the phrases below to complete the outline.

A lot of work for actors

Begins with a screenplay

Best-known type of acting

Introduction

Must memorize lines

No editing

Range from old plays to new ones

Sets stay the same

Stories change every week

Teleprompters give lines

Television acting

Thesis statement

Type 3

Title: The Many Faces of Acting

I. _____

A. Hook

B. Connecting information

C. _____

II. Body Paragraph 1 (Type 1): Stage acting

A. General information

1. Oldest type of acting

2. _____

3. Performed on large and small stages

B. Performance/set

1. Performance is repeated each night

2. _____

C. Actors' responsibilities

1. Rehearse for months

2. _____

3. Importance of understudies

D. Disadvantages

1. _____

2. Great one day/uneven the next

SUPPORT

III. Body Paragraph 2 (Type 2): _____

- SUPPORT
- A. General information
 - 1. _____
 - 2. TV programs
 - 3. Filmed in a studio
 - B. Story
 - 1. _____
 - 2. Writers create new dialogs and scenes
 - C. Actors' responsibilities
 - 1. Actors rehearse five days per week
 - 2. Filming on the last day
 - D. Advantages
 - 1. _____
 - 2. Director's help
 - 3. Filmed until it is just right

IV. Body Paragraph 3 (_____): Film acting

- SUPPORT
- A. Process
 - 1. _____
 - 2. Becomes a movie
 - B. Filming
 - 1. Filmed on location
 - 2. Scenes can be filmed in any order
 - C. Advantages/disadvantages
 - 1. Repeat scenes until good results
 - 2. _____
 - D. Actors' responsibilities
 - 1. Be a hard worker
 - 2. Be flexible in how and where they work

V. Conclusion

- A. Restate the thesis statement
- B. Summarize the main points
- C. Concluding statement: a prediction