

Present and Past Obligation – have to / don't have to / had to / didn't have to Complete the lines in the conversation between Leo and his mom with the correct form of have to.

M: Leo, are you ready for school?

L: Not yet, Mom. I _____ finish my English homework before I leave.

M: That's good. When I was your age, I _____ write everything by hand. We didn't have computers.

L: Really? That sounds difficult. Today we _____ type all our essays on the laptop.

M: And what about your sports training? Do you still go after school?

L: Yes, I _____ go to football practice twice a week. Last year I _____ go three times a week, but this year it's less.

M: That's better. At your age, I _____ practice basketball every day after school.

L: Wow, every day? At least I _____ practice on weekends – those are free!

M: You're lucky. On Saturdays I _____ help my parents in our family shop before I could play.
