Buying Things

People buy many different things every week. Some people like going to shops, but (Example) some people prefer shopping online. Both ways of shopping can be useful.

When we go to a shop, we can see the things we want to buy. There are (1) _____ clothes in a big clothes shop, so we can choose our favourite ones. We can also ask a shop assistant for (2) _____ advice.

Some shops have sales, so we can buy things at a lower price. If a jacket is £50 and there is a 20% discount, you don't need to pay the (3) _____ price. You can save some money.

When we pay for our shopping, we can use cash or a card. We usually get a (4) _____ after we pay. It shows what we bought and how much we paid.

Online shopping is useful too. You can buy things (5) _____ home, and they can come to your house. However, you can't always see the things before you buy (6) _____.

If you want to buy clothes online, you should look carefully at the size. There are usually (7) _____ sizes to choose from. You can also read other people's reviews before you buy something.

Shopping can be fun, but we should not buy (8) _____. things that we don't need. It is a good idea to think about the price before buying something. We can save money (9) _____ a special thing later.

Some children also like selling things to make (10) _____ pocket money. They can learn about money and how to sell things to other people.
