Carlos: You can do both! Lots of _____ do an _____ during their last year. It really helps with experience.

Miguel: That's true. But I also have to keep a good _____. My financial aid depends on it.

Carlos: I understand. You can talk to your _____ about it. Mine helped me plan everything — my _____, my courses, even my thesis topic.

Miguel: Wait, you have to write a _____ too?

Carlos: Yes, in my last semester. You can't _____ without it in my _____. It's a lot of work, but it's also _____.

Miguel: That sounds intense. Where do you even study for something like that?

Carlos: I usually go to the library, or I join a _____. You can't do everything alone — your classmates really help.

Miguel: Makes _____. And do you still live in the _____?

Carlos: No, not anymore. You don't have to live there the whole time. I moved out after my second year.

Miguel: Okay, this is helpful. I think I'm gonna talk to my advisor this week.

Carlos: Good idea. You have to start planning early — your degree, your internship, even _____. It all takes time, but you can do it.

Miguel: Thanks, Carlos. I feel more confident now.

Carlos: Anytime! University can feel _____, but you can always ask for help. That's what advisors and study groups are for.
