

Defining relative clauses

1 Choose the correct option.

- 1 I still haven't seen the present _____ we're going to give to Paul.
A who B which C where
- 2 What is the name of the subject _____ is compulsory this year?
A who B which C where
- 3 Mrs Banks is the teacher _____ wrote the final exam.
A who B which C where
- 4 The car _____ my father bought from our neighbour is a bit old.
A who B which C where
- 5 The girl _____ is putting on her coat is called Hollie.
A who B which C where
- 6 Is this the place _____ you met your future wife?
A who B that C where
- 7 This is the classroom _____ we have our Chinese course.
A who B that C where

2 Join the sentences with who, which or where. Don't change the words given.

- 1 I have passed the exam. It was very difficult.
The exam _____

- 2 A woman is making the costumes. She hasn't finished them yet.
The woman _____

- 3 A new school will open here. It will have a swimming pool.
The new school _____

- 4 They're staying at a hotel. It's the best hotel in our town.
The hotel _____
