Declarative and Interrogative Sentences

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. A sentence begins with a capital letter. A sentence that tells something is a declarative sentence. A declarative sentence ends with a period. A sentence that asks a question is an interrogative sentence. An interrogative sentence ends with a question mark.

Declarative Sentence	Some dogs know how to smile.
Interrogative Sentence	Do you play with your dog?

Directions Write D if the sentence is declarative. Write I if the sentence is interrogative.

1. Dogs are not allowed in the library. _____
2. Did she really see a bear? _____
3. Winn-Dixie knows how to smile. _____
4. Smiling is one of his talents. _____
5. What else can he do? _____

Directions Write each sentence with the correct end punctuation mark.

6. Which book did Miss Franny throw at the bear

_____

7. She threw a large book, War and Peace

_____

8. What is the dog's name

_____

9. The dog's name is Winn-Dixie

_____

10. Will he be my friend too

_____

Copyright © Savvas Learning Company LLC. All Rights Reserved.

LIVEWORKSHEETS