TUNAS BANGSA CHRISTIAN SCHOOL
WORKSHEET
2026 – 2027

WORKSHEET ON MISPLACED AND DANGLING MODIFIERS

Identify if the underlined word or phrase is misplaced or dangling. If misplaced, choose MM, then rewrite the sentence by placing the modifier next to the word it modifies. If dangling, choose DM, then correct the sentence by fixing it, in which the modifier has a clear word to modify.

Example: The cake was eaten by the children covered in chocolate frosting. MM
Answer: The cake covered in chocolate icing was eaten by the children.

Example: After finishing the assignment, the TV was turned on. DM
Answer: After finishing the assignment, I turned on the TV.

1. The teacher handed out the tests to the students covered in red ink. _____
2. Shouting loudly, the referee's whistle startled the players. _____
3. The old man walked his dog wearing a broken hat. _____
4. The pizza was delivered to the students that was still steaming.
5. The boy read the book to his sister with torn pages. _____
6. After finishing the homework, the TV was turned on. _____
7. The tourists spotted a tiger on the way to the village with binoculars. _____
8. The chef served dinner to the guests burnt to a crisp. _____
9. The young woman bought a dress for the party with shiny sequins. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. The students discussed the problem confused about the instructions. _____

11. Running to catch the bus, the backpack straps broke suddenly. _____

12. The parents watched their child at the school play proudly clapping in the front row. _____

13. The reporter interviewed the mayor after writing the article. _____

14. The boy gave the flowers to the girl he loved freshly picked from the garden. _____

15. Flying over the city, the tall buildings looked tiny. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS