

► Words Describing Feelings about a Place

ACTIVITY 2:

Learning Objective 2	Identify the appropriate adjective for the following sentences
Steps to Success:	Choose a suitable adjective for each of the following sentences

Below are some examples of how you can describe feelings about a place. Use a dictionary to explain any words you do not know. (Or ask a teacher)

X is ...

Amazing
Full of surprises
Intriguing
Delightful
Daunting
Awe-inspiring
Welcoming
Impressive
Disappointing
Depressing
Uninviting
Unattractive
Repulsive
Threatening
Distressing

I felt ...

Amazed
Surprised
Intrigued
Delighted
Overwhelmed
Daunted
Full of awe
Welcome
Impressed
Disappointed
Depressed
Unwelcome
Repelled
Threatened
Distressed

From the two lists above, choose a suitable adjective for each of the following sentences. Some have more than one possibility.

1. It was a _____ place, as it seemed every villager offered the visitor a cup of coffee.
2. I was _____ by the inhabitants' generosity. The present was more than I deserved.
3. We were _____ by the friendliness of the inhabitants.
4. I felt _____ by the large number of unemployed youths.
5. The visitor often feels _____ by the presence in the market of dog and cat meat.
6. Shabby, old buildings make the place most _____.
7. An _____ row of houses gives a poor first impression of the village.
8. Who cannot be _____ by the friendliness of the inhabitants!
9. The visitor feels _____ at the number of monuments found in the town.
10. We felt quite _____ at the thought of a climb up a staircase of 4000 steps.