

Choose a topic and write an essay

Some people believe that people should mainly make friends with those who are close to them in age. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

People of very different ages cannot have a strong friendship. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Age is one of the most important factors when choosing friends. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Friendships between people of different generations are more beneficial than friendships between people of a similar age. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Vocabulary: age gap, generation, shared interests, life experience, common values, relate to someone, generation gap, perspective, mutual understanding

The shopping habits of people depend more on their age group than on any other factors. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

People should dress according to their age rather than according to their personal preferences. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

People of all ages should be free to wear whatever clothes they like. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

The clothes people wear should be appropriate for their age. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

