About Austria

Austria is a country whose capital city is Vienna. The people of Austria speak German, and the currency used for buying and selling is the Euro. The country has a population of approximately 9 million.

If you look at a map, you will find that Austria shares its borders with Germany, Czechia, Slovakia, Hungary, Slovenia, Italy, Switzerland, Liechtenstein. Knowing a country's neighbors helps you understand its culture, trade, and history.

One of the most famous places to visit in Austria is Schönbrunn Palace. Here is an interesting fact: Vienna has been voted one of the world's most livable cities many years in a row.

The flag of Austria features the colors red, white. Three horizontal stripes of red, white, and red. Legend says it comes from a duke's blood-stained coat after battle.
