

Learn with Veni

SPOKEN ENGLISH SERIES

@Learn_With_Veni

Be Verbs Practice Sheet (Am, Is, Are)

Quick Rules

Rule	Use	Example
I → am	Use am with I	I am happy.
He / She / It → is	Use is with one person or one thing	She is a teacher.
You / We / They → are	Use are with more than one person or one thing	They are friends.

A Part A – Fill in the Blanks

Choose am, is, or are.

- Rocky _____ my friend.
- Milo _____ a smart penguin.
- Piku and Pebble _____ classmates.
- We _____ ready for class.
- Sparky _____ very active.
- You _____ a good learner.
- It _____ a sunny day.
- I _____ excited to learn English.
- Rocky and Milo _____ in the classroom.
- Pebble _____ happy today.

B Part B – Correct the Mistakes

Rewrite the sentences correctly.

- Rocky are my friend.

- Milo am a penguin.

- Piku and Pebble is classmates.

- We is ready.

- Sparky are very active.

C Part C – Complete the Conversation

Fill in the blanks.

- Rocky: Hi! I _____ Rocky.
Milo: Hello! I _____ Milo.
Rocky: _____ you Piku's friend?

- Milo: Yes, I _____.
Rocky: Where _____ Piku and Pebble?
Milo: They _____ in the library.

Grammar Tip

- I → am
- He / She / It → is
- You / We / They → are

When to use?

- Be verbs (am, is, are) are used to talk about people, things, places, feelings, professions and situations.
- They are helping verbs and main verbs.

Practice Daily

Read

Speak

Grow

Learn

Grow

Together

Save this sheet for a reference.

Follow Learn with Veni for more practice sheets.