

WORKSHEET: RELATIVE CLAUSES WITH "WHO"

Grammar Practice — Combining Sentences

Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Combine each pair of sentences into one sentence using the relative pronoun "who".

1. The boy is my cousin. He is standing near the window.
2. I met a friendly woman. She works at the local library.
3. The teacher was very proud. She helped the students pass the exam.
4. Do you know the man? He lives next door to you.
5. The students won the first prize. They studied very hard for the quiz.
6. A doctor saved the little girl. He was working late last night.
7. The singer signed an autograph. She has a beautiful voice.
8. I am looking for the man. He dropped his wallet on the street.
9. The chef prepared a delicious meal. He works at a five-star restaurant.
10. The children are playing in the garden. They love outdoor activities.
11. We talked to the police officer. He gave us directions to the museum.
12. The actor thanked his fans. He won the award last week.

13. A mechanic fixed my car yesterday. He was very professional.

14. The woman called you this morning. She is my mother's close friend.

15. They invited the neighbors. They just moved into the house opposite ours.