

Mind the Gap

Each phrasal verb is missing one part. Sometimes the verb is given and you write the particle; sometimes the particle is given and you write the verb. Read the whole sentence — the context tells you the answer. Two lines = a two-word particle.

- 1 While scrolling through his phone, Leo came _____ some old photos from Year 7.
- 2 Zoe is travelling around Asia and won't come _____ home until August.
- 3 The night before the gig, our drummer came _____ a nasty cold.
- 4 Everyone pre-ordered the album weeks before it came _____.
- 5 After fainting in the heat, Ben slowly _____ round on the sofa.
- 6 While planning the festival, we came _____ one problem after another.
- 7 Priya always comes up _____ the best ideas for our videos.
- 8 It's hard to cope _____ exams and training at the same time.
- 9 My coach told me to cut down _____ fizzy drinks and sweets.
- 10 The castle we visited _____ back to the 1400s.
- 11 Without protection, these tiny frogs could _____ out for good.
- 12 On the school archaeology trip, we actually _____ up a Roman coin!
- 13 My uncle bought a run-down cottage and is doing it _____.
- 14 The first episode had such a twist that it drew me _____ straight away.
- 15 For the leavers' ball, we all _____ up in our smartest clothes.
- 16 _____ by my house after school if you fancy a game.
- 17 You can _____ in any time — you don't need to text first.
- 18 We caught the wrong bus and ended _____ miles from the stadium.
- 19 If you miss too much training, you'll fall _____ the rest of the team.
- 20 Ryan _____ out with his best mate over a silly comment online.