¹ Being "broke" usually describes a temporary lack of funds (such as being short on cash until your next paycheck). People often say "flat broke" to emphasize having zero money.

² DOA stands for "dead on arrival", meaning something or someone is doomed, broken, or finished before it even has a chance.

³ Stuck primarily means being unable to move, progress, or change a situation

⁴ "In second gear" literally means a vehicle is operating using its second lowest transmission gear, but figuratively means operating at a slow, mediocre, or unenthusiastic pace.

⁵ "At my worst" means being in the most unpleasant, difficult, unhealthy, or unsuccessful state possible.
