

My Job Story

My name is Anna. I am a teacher. I work at a school. Every morning, I go to school. I teach English to children. I read books with my students. I help them learn new words. At break time, I eat lunch with my friends. After lunch, I teach again. I like my job because I love children. I am happy when my students learn something new.

Example:

1. What is Anna's job?

Anna is a teacher.

2. What does Anna do at school?

3. What does Anna do with her students?

4. Why does Anna like her job?
