Simple Present - Interrogative

GRAMMAR PRACTICE

1 - Study and practice.

We use the Simple Present Interrogative to ask about routines, habits, facts, and everyday activities.
To make questions in the Simple Present, we use the auxiliary verbs do and does.

DO

Use with: I / You / We / They
DO + subject + base verb + complement?

- Do you like pizza?
- Do they study English?

DOES

Use with: He / She/ it
DOES + subject + base verb + complement?

- Does she play games?
- Does he have a dog?

Remember: After does, the main verb stays in the base form.

✓ Does she like music? → ✗ Does she likes music?

2 - Choose DO or DOES:

a) _____ you like ice cream?

b) _____ she live in Brazil?

c) _____ they play basketball?

d) _____ he watch TV every day?

e) _____ we have homework today?

f) _____ it rain a lot here?

g) _____ you work on Saturdays?

h) _____ Maria speak English?

i) _____ you speak English?

3 - Put the words in order
