Houses are expensive in Australia – level 1

04-09-2026 07:00

house – year - families – small - parents – together

Houses in Australia are very expensive today. Young people cannot buy their own homes. Because of this, many _____ live together in one big _____.

Grandparents, _____, and adult children share space to save money. Some older people build _____ homes in their children's gardens.

Living _____ helps everyone. Grandparents help with children, and young people get a cheap place to live.

The number of families living together is growing fast every _____. Between 2016 and 2021, it goes up by 22%.

Responda T (true) ou F (false).

1. Young people can buy houses.
2. Families live together in a big house.
3. Older people live with their children.

LIVEWORKSHEETS