

Name - Surname:

Date: 24.03.2021

Study 9

A) Complete the missing parts.

Write the passives of the given sentences

Present Simple Tense They (promote) me to a better position every year
Present Continuous Tense They (promote) me to a better position this Monday
Simple Past Tense They (promote) me to a better position last Monday
Past Continuous Tense They (promote) me to a better position at this time last year
Present Perfect Tense They (promote) me to a better position since 2018
Present Perfect Continuous Tense They (promote) me to a better position for the last two years
Past Perfect Tense They (promote) me to a better position before 2017
Past Perfect Continuous Tense They (promote) me to a better position for two years before 2015
Future Tense / will I hope they (promote) me to a better position next week
Future Tense / be going to They (promote) me to a better position next month
Future Continuous Tense They (promote) me to a better position at this time next year
Future Perfect Tense They (promote) me to a better position by the end of this month
Future Perfect Continuous Tense They (promote) me to a better position for two days by the end of this week

Ability present They (promote) me to a better position.
Ability past They (promote) me to a better position in 2019
Present Possibility I am not sure, but they (promote) me to a better position.
Past Possibility They (promote) me to a better position in 2015
Necessity They (promote) me to a better position.
Lack of necessity They (promote) me to a better position.
Preferences They (promote) me to a better position.

B) Complete the tag questions.

1. Their house is being redecorated at present, _____?
2. You've stayed with your parents for two years, _____?
3. You'd stayed in London for two years before 2016, _____?
4. James never set out without checking the tires, _____?
5. Tony and Sue were working together at that time, _____?
6. Susan had no money in the past, _____?
7. Susan had had no time before she retired, _____?
8. Max won't attend the next meeting, _____?
9. Cindy's got a new job, _____?
10. Cindy's our new product manager, _____?
11. Cindy's been appointed to this department recently, _____?
12. Cindy's publishers paid her nothing, _____?
13. Cindy has an interesting idea to solve her problem, _____?
14. Cindy had a good job in the past, _____?
15. I'm your friend, _____?
16. Let's start a new campaign, _____?
17. They'd love to spend all day in the camp site, _____?
18. They'd bought two puppies before they adopted a kitten, _____?
19. They had had a good chance to progress before the economic recession started, _____?
20. They had a big house while they were living in the village, _____?

C) Write the questions for given places.

- a). Gabriel worked at the bank before we met.

1	2	3
---	---	---

1.
2.
3.

- b) Gabriel has worked at the same bank for the last thirty years.

1 2 3

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

- c) Gabriel will have worked at the same bank for thirty years by the time he is retired.

1 2 3

1.
2.
3.