

Intensifiers – SO and SUCH

1. SO + adjective / adverb

We use so before an adjective or adverb to make it stronger.

- The movie was so interesting.
- She runs so quickly.
- The weather is so cold today.

Structure:

- so + adjective
- so + adverb

2. SUCH + noun

We use such before a noun or noun phrase to emphasize it.

- It was such a good movie.
- She is such a kind person.
- They had such beautiful weather.

Structure:

- such + a/an + adjective + singular countable noun
 - such a difficult exam
- such + adjective + plural/uncountable noun
 - such interesting books
 - such bad weather

SO vs. SUCH

SO

so + adjective

so + adverb

It was so expensive.

She speaks so clearly.

SUCH

such + a/an + adjective + singular noun

such + adjective + plural noun

It was such an expensive car.

She is such a clear speaker.

Exercise 1 – Choose SO or SUCH

1. The concert was ___ amazing.
2. It was ___ a difficult question.
3. She speaks ___ quietly.
4. They are ___ friendly people.
5. We had ___ bad weather yesterday.
6. The food was ___ delicious.
7. He is ___ a talented musician.
8. It was ___ an interesting documentary.
9. The children were ___ excited.
10. They live in ___ a beautiful house.

Exercise 2 – Complete the sentences. Use so or such and the words in parentheses.

1. The book was _____. (interesting)
2. It was _____. (a funny story)
3. She is _____. (a patient teacher)
4. The test was _____. (difficult)
5. They had _____. (beautiful weather)
6. He drives _____. (carefully)
7. It was _____. (an expensive restaurant)
8. The students were _____. (tired)

Exercise 3 – Correct the mistakes

1. It was so a beautiful day.
2. She is such intelligent.
3. They had so terrible weather.
4. He is so a friendly person.
5. The movie was such interesting.
6. She speaks such quickly.

Exercise 4 – Complete the sentences using so or such and your own ideas

1. My hometown is so _____.
2. It is such a _____.
3. My favorite movie is so _____.
4. I have such _____.
5. Learning English can be so _____.
6. My best friend is such a _____.