

Part 1: Vocabulary Matching

Match each phrasal verb to its correct definition. Write the letter next to the number.

Phrasal Verbs

1. _____ Get out
2. _____ Get rid of
3. _____ Get through
4. _____ Get on with
5. _____ Get over

Definitions A. To discard or throw away something heavy or useless. B. To escape or leave a dangerous enclosed space. C. To heal or bounce back from an illness or shock. D. To resume a task after a pause or distraction. E. To survive or make it safely to the end of a difficult ordeal.

Part 2: Vocabulary in Context

Complete each sentence by choosing the correct phrasal verb from the word bank. Change the tense of the verb "get" if necessary.

Word Bank: get out | get through | get over | get rid of | get on with

1. We must _____ these wet clothes before we catch a cold!
2. The cave is collapsing! We need to _____ right now!
3. After the storm passed, we had to stop resting and _____ repairing the shelter.
4. If we ration our food and water, we will _____ this freezing night.
5. It took him weeks to _____ the shock of the earthquake.

Part 3: Identifying Perfect Tenses

Read the sentences below. Identify which perfect tense is being used in each sentence and write it on the line. (Options: Present Perfect, Present Perfect Continuous, Past Perfect, Future Perfect)

1. The number of people who depend on the ocean for their livelihood has declined.
2. By the year 2036, these unique people will probably have disappeared from the ocean completely.
3. They had realized a tsunami was coming long before the alarms sounded.
4. The Moken have been living off the sea for generations.

Part 4: Fill in the Blank (Grammar)

Conjugate the verb in parentheses into the most logical perfect tense based on the context of the sentence.

1. I _____ (never / see) such a massive storm in my entire life!
2. By the time the rescue helicopter finally arrived, they _____ (already / wait) for three days. (Note: Focus on the completed action before the helicopter arrived)
3. The explorers are exhausted because they _____ (hike) through the dense jungle for eight hours straight.
4. By next Friday, we _____ (build) a strong enough raft to cross the river.
5. She _____ (read) the survival manual twice, so she knows exactly what to do.

Part 5: Spot the Mistake

Read each sentence below. Look closely at the perfect verb forms. If the sentence is correct, write "Correct." If it is incorrect, rewrite the sentence with the proper verb form.

1. They had realize the danger before anyone else.
2. We have been working on this fire since morning.
3. By tomorrow, the storm will has passed.
4. I have got rid of all the heavy gear yesterday before the hike started.