

1. With verbs

1. The more cities expand, the more people move to urban areas.
2. The more people migrate to cities, the more crowded urban areas become.
3. The more cities develop, the more they attract young workers.
4. The more people use private vehicles, the more traffic congestion increases.
5. The less people depend on private cars, the less traffic congestion there will be.

2. With nouns

6. The more people a city attracts, the greater the demand for housing becomes.
7. The more residents a city has, the greater its need for public services becomes.
8. The more buildings a city constructs, the less green space it has.
9. The more factories an urban area has, the greater the amount of air pollution becomes.
10. The fewer cars a city has, the less traffic congestion it experiences.

Cấu trúc:

The more/fewer + plural noun + S + V, the more/less + noun + S + V.

3. With adjectives

11. The larger cities become, the more difficult it is to provide enough housing.
12. The more crowded urban areas become, the more serious traffic problems become.
13. The more expensive housing becomes, the harder it is for low-income families to find a home.
14. The more polluted cities become, the less liveable they are.
15. The less polluted a city is, the healthier its residents are.

4. With adverbs

16. The faster cities grow, the more quickly their infrastructure needs to develop.
17. The more rapidly urban populations increase, the more urgently cities need new housing.
18. The more efficiently public transport operates, the less people rely on private vehicles.

19. The less frequently people use private cars, the less heavily polluted city centres become.
20. The more carefully cities plan their development, the more effectively they can control urban problems.