MID-AUTUMN FESTIVAL

Group 1: What is the Mid-Autumn Festival?

The Mid-Autumn Festival is a traditional festival in Vietnam.
It is a special festival for children and families.
It is celebrated on the 15th day of the eighth lunar month.
Children carry colorful lanterns and watch lion dances.
Families get together and enjoy the full moon.

Group 2: Traditional Foods

Mooncakes are the most famous food of the Mid-Autumn Festival.
There are two popular types: baked mooncakes and soft mooncakes.
Baked mooncakes have a golden-brown crust.
Soft mooncakes have a soft and white crust.
People also enjoy fruits and tea with their families

Group 3: The Meaning of Mooncakes

Mooncakes can have different shapes, such as round and square.

The round mooncake represents the full moon.

The square mooncake represents the earth.

Both shapes represent happiness, family love, and good wishes.

Group 4: How to Make Soft Mooncakes

First, prepare the dough and the filling.

Next, make small balls of the filling.

Then, put the filling inside the dough.

Wrap the dough around the filling and make a round ball.

Finally, put it into a mooncake mold and press it gently.

Now, the soft mooncake is ready!
