

1.1 Success, failure and goals

1 Choose the correct option.

- 0 Are you disappointed / delighted that Marek can't come to the party? You look really sad.
- 1 I need to go to bed early tonight – work is hard at the moment and I feel pleased / exhausted.
- 2 Olga always tries to keep calm / confused before an exam.
- 3 We're anxious / surprised to see Novak getting up early at the weekend. He normally likes to stay in bed.
- 4 They're upset / cheerful today because they are going on a fun holiday tomorrow.

____/4

2 Complete the words in the sentences.

- 0 Belen really wants to succeed in her new job.
- 1 What goals do we want to a _____ this year in our studies?
- 2 Don't worry if you f _____ the test. You can try again next week.
- 3 I always wake up early so I m _____ to get a lot of work done.
- 4 I need to a _____ to get a better result in Maths next year.

____/4

3 Match the sentence halves. There is one extra sentence half.

- | | |
|--|----------|
| 0 You should always try to do | h |
| 1 Joanne is a good student. She takes | _____ |
| 2 We're finding it very difficult to work | _____ |
| 3 Don't worry if you make | _____ |
| 4 He's thinking about giving Spanish lessons | _____ |
| 5 I don't think you should give | _____ |
| 6 They want to keep | _____ |
| 7 Xing finds it very easy to make | _____ |

- a mistakes – it happens to everyone.
- b decisions about the future.
- c up yet – you're doing great!
- d something wrong but it's OK.
- e her schoolwork very seriously.
- f a go so he can visit Madrid next year.
- g on searching until they find their keys.
- h your best at school.
- i out the answer to this problem.

____/7

Total: ____/15