Find an Idiom and a metaphor in the following paragraph

One night, the little fox looked up at the sky and saw a bright star twinkling above the dark forest. He wished he could reach it, so he climbed the tallest hill and stretched his paws towards the sky. The star was a diamond in the darkness, shining brightly and giving him hope. Although the journey was difficult, the fox decided to keep his chin up and never give up. At last, he understood that sometimes the things we wish for may be far away, but they can still light the way and give us courage.
