

MARITIME VOCABULARY WORKSHEET

Exam 1 Review: Vessel Structure & Crew Roles (Pages 1 & 2)

Student Name: Date: Score:

Activity 1: Ship Directions & Locations

Match each description in Column A with its corresponding maritime term in Column B. Write the letter in the bracket.

Column A (Description)	Ans	Column B (Term)
1. Towards the bow / fore end of the ship	[]	A. Port
2. The right side of the hull looking forward	[]	B. Forward
3. Line dividing the ship into port and starboard	[]	C. Aft
4. The left side of the hull looking forward	[]	D. Starboard
5. Towards the stern / after end of the ship	[]	E. Centerline
6. The right side of the vessel aft	[]	F. Starboard quarter

Activity 2: Parts of the Vessel (Identification)

Fill in the blank with the correct term described.

1. The fore end of the ship is called the
2. The main structural body of the ship is called the
3. Vertical steel walls that divide the hull internally are called
4. Compartments designed to carry cargo in dry-cargo ships are called
5. Space for carrying cargo in liquid-cargo ships is called a
6. Tanks situated between the holds and the bottom of the hull:

Activity 3: Onboard Department Categorization

Sort the following crew roles into their correct onboard department:

Word Bank: Chief Engineer, Able Seaman (AB), Chief Cook, Wiper, Deck Cadet, Oiler, Ordinary Seaman (OS), First Assistant Engineer

Deck Department	Engine Department	Steward's Department

Activity 4: Crew Ranks & Duties

Complete the following sentences with the appropriate rank or role title.

1. The officer with the highest rank in the Engine Department is the _____.
2. The officer who is second-in-command after the Master is the _____ Officer.
3. The person who supervises all the deck ratings and is not an officer: _____.
4. A member of the engine department assigned to cleaning duties is a _____.
5. The person responsible for steering the vessel is the _____.
6. A sailor who maneuvers and guides ships into and out of ports (not a crew member): _____.
7. An apprentice learning basic duties of a deck officer onboard: _____.

Activity 5: Ship Dimensions & Measurements

Select the correct choice for each dimension or measurement definition.

1. The maximum breadth (width) of the hull measured amidships:

- ☐ A. Freeboard ☐ B. Beam ☐ C. Draft

2. Vertical distance between waterline and main deck:

- ☐ A. Freeboard ☐ B. Air draft ☐ C. Depth

3. Sum of weights of cargo, fuel, water, crew, & provisions (DWT):

- ☐ A. Lightweight ☐ B. Deadweight

4. Height of ship from waterline to highest point:

- ☐ A. Air draft ☐ B. Depth ☐ C. Draft

Activity 6: Maritime Grammar & Prepositions

Fill in the blanks with the correct prepositions or words used in maritime contexts.

1. The Chief Cook earns $75,000 _____ year.
2. The Master is responsible _____ the ship, her cargo, and the crew.
3. The duty officer works from 0800 hrs _____ 1200 hrs.
4. An oiler is _____ charge of lubricating the machinery.
5. If a sailor loses his job and has no work, he is _____.

Activity 7: True or False

Write T for True or F for False. Correct any false statement below.

1. ☐ A lookout is a person responsible for steering the ship.
2. ☐ A rating is a crew member who is not an officer.
3. ☐ Upper works refer to the parts of the vessel situated below the waterline.
4. ☐ An Ordinary Seaman (OS) has more experience than an Able Seaman (AB).