

Activity 6. B African Gorillas

Park rangers at the Senkwekwe Mountain Gorilla Orphanage Centre (Congo)

Read the text above and choose the best options to the following questions

1. The park ranger took a photo with two posing gorillas.
2. Virunga is the Congo 's biggest national park.
3. There are more than a thousand mountain gorillas in the park.
4. Park rangers and animals are in danger because of poachers.
5. Park rangers care for only rare species.
6. They monitor illegal human activities, watch for water bodies, and fire management.
7. They are away from their families for a long time.
8. Nkakazi and Ndeze were rescued when hunters killed their families twelve years ago.
9. They imitate their caretakers because they spend most of their time together.
10. The national park raises money from private donations and has government support.