

Name: _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

INSTRUCTIONS: Drag and drop "There is" for one animal and "There are" for many animals. Look at the picture and the hint in parentheses.

Animals and Their Homes - Grammar

There is / There are — Part 2 Grammar

REMEMBER!

There is = one

There are = many

DRAG & DROP ACTIVITY

Use: There is or There are

There is

There are

Choose the correct phrase to fill in each blank!

EXERCISES

Fill in the blank with "There is" or "There are"

1.

a lion in the den.

(one lion)

2.

two bears in the cave.

(two bears)

3.

a bird in the nest.

(one bird)

4.

a rabbit in the burrow.

(one rabbit)

5.

two dogs in the kennel.

(two dogs)

Great job!

Review: Use "There is" for one • Use "There are" for more than one