

- 1 From the first paragraph, we understand that the writer
 - A is regretting having decided to come on a course.
 - B hasn't followed all her course leader's instructions.
 - C is taking part in an outdoor activity as part of a course.
 - D has become separated from the other participants on a course.
- 2 Why does the writer decide to keep moving in the dark forest?
 - A She lacks the confidence to build herself a shelter.
 - B She's unsure that daylight would help her very much.
 - C She's keen to prove that somebody is wrong about her.
 - D She doesn't want to give up the challenge she's been set.
- 3 What do we learn from the article about some research in Germany?
 - A It reached a conclusion that has since been questioned.
 - B It established why some people are more likely to get lost.
 - C It showed that a situation commonly seen in films is unrealistic.
 - D It failed to take into account physical differences between people.
- 4 What does the word 'it' in bold refer to in paragraph 4?
 - A a knowledge of astronomy
 - B using the stars to find north
 - C dealing with weather conditions
 - D using several natural clues in the dark
- 5 The writer uses dried grass in order to confirm that
 - A the direction of the wind doesn't keep changing.
 - B there is enough wind for her to reach a conclusion.
 - C her assumptions about the wind direction are correct.
 - D the wind is moving in the same direction as the clouds.
- 6 From the end of the article, we understand that the writer is
 - A disappointed not to have achieved her goal.
 - B amused that the course leader can't find her.
 - C relieved that the experience is coming to an end.
 - D determined to find the way without anyone's help.