

1. Complete using the zero conditional

- a. If your team _____ the game, the other team _____. (win / lose)
- b. If you _____ a foot ball very hard, it _____ a long way. (kick / fly)
- c. If chess players _____ intelligent, they _____ their moves. (be / plan)
- d. I _____ badly in the match if I _____. (not sleep / play)
- e. You _____ the ball with a bat if you _____ cricket. (hit / play)
- f. If it _____ on Saturday morning, we _____ in the gym (rain / train)

2. Complete using the first conditional

- a. If our goalkeeper _____ the ball, we _____ the game. (catch / win)
- b. My team _____ the campion if they _____ the match on Monday (not be / not win)
- c. If it _____ tomorrow, the match _____. (snow / not take place)
- d. If you _____ often, you _____ strong (exercise / be)
- e. I _____ you at the stadium if I _____ a ticket. (see / get)
- f. My feet _____ if I _____ in another marathon (hurt / complete)

3. Complete using the zero or first conditional sentences with a result clause.

- a. If it rains hard during the match tomorrow, they _____ (arrive)
- b. You _____ a tennis ball soft if you play urban golf (hit)
- c. If you play volleyball, the team _____ six players (have)
- d. If he hits hard, he _____ the boxing match (win / might)
- e. If we are late, we _____ the train (watch / may)
- f. If you don't buy a ticket, you _____ the game (watch)
- g. We _____ if our team wins on Saturday (have a party)
- h. This ball _____ very heavy If it is wet (be)
- i. If you run a marathon, you _____ very tired (get / might)
- j. Players often _____ if they don't warm up (get injured)