

Prepositions of Place

I. Unscramble the sentences.

1 in / of / front / It's / school. / the

2 bookstore. / It's / the / mall / between / the / and

3 zoo. / behind / It's / the

4 in / playground. / front / the / It's / of

II. Look and answer the question: Where's the monkey?

1 It's _____ the tree .

2 It's _____ the tree .

3 It's _____ the tree .

III. Listen, drag and drop.

mother milk young food neck giraffe tail ears small baby

Mother and Baby Mammals

Look at the _____ elephant with its mother. Baby mammals look like their mothers. A mother elephant has big _____ and a long _____. A baby elephant has ears and a tail, but they are _____. The mother gives her baby _____. Soon her baby will be big, too!

This _____ is a good mother. She teaches her baby to use its long _____ to get leaves from tall trees. They find _____ together. The baby giraffe stays near its mother.

Mother tigers give their babies milk, too. Then _____ tigers learn to catch food. Soon the babies will look like their _____!

IV. Read the text again and complete.

- 1 A mother tiger gives the baby _____.
- 2 Giraffes use their long _____ to get leaves.
- 3 A baby elephant has a _____ tail.
- 4 _____ elephants have big ears.
- 5 Young tigers learn to _____ food.