Section 1: Past-Tense Verbs & Memory Root

Past-tense verbs tell about actions that already happened in the past.

Word List: said, flung, rode, struck, swung, swore, sprang, clung, wanted, went, was, were, yesterday, remember, memories

Grammar Rule: Irregular past-tense verbs do not end in -ed. Their spelling changes completely!

Present Tense	Irregular Past Tense
swing	swung
cling	clung
spring	sprang
fling	flung
go	went
be → is / are	was / were

Root Word Anchor: The root mem- means mind or what happens in the brain (e.g., remember, memories).

1. Circle the correct verb: Yesterday, the small monkey (clung / clinged) tightly to its mother.
2. Complete the rule: The root mem- refers to things that happen in the _____.

Section 2: Homophones

Homophones sound identical when spoken, but they have different spellings and different meanings.

Homophone Pair	Meaning 1	Meaning 2
there / their / they're	there: a location or place	their: belongs to them they're: short for they are through / threw	through: passing inside something	threw: past tense of throw

non-	not or without	nonliving = not alive
bio-	life	biologist = a person who studies life
-or	a person who does an action	actor, inventor
-ist	a person who studies or specializes	biologist

1. Write the two words that form the contraction wasn't: _____ + _____
2. Add the correct suffix: A person who invents new tools is an invent_____.
3. If an event is prehistoric, it took place _____ history was recorded.

Section 4: Question Words, Relative Pronouns & Affixes 1.6 Question Words, Relative Pronouns & Word Parts

Relative pronouns (who, whose, which) help connect a clause to a noun to add detail.

Word List: what, who, where, when, how, with, whose, which, antisocial, impossible, conversation, why, because, unhappy, misunderstood

Additional Word Parts to Know: anti- → against / not (antisocial = not wanting to socialize); im- → not (impossible = not possible); -tion → act of / state of (conversation = the act of talking together).

Extra word part: un- means not or the opposite of something. For example, unhappy means not happy.

4. Choose the correct relative pronoun: The pencil (who / whose / which) is on the desk belongs to Miss Hammock.
1. Circle the correct pronoun: The teacher (who / which) helped us with science was very kind.
2. What does the prefix im- mean in the word impossible? _____
3. If someone is feeling unhappy, the prefix un- means _____.

Section 5: Context Clues Strategy & Practice

Context clues are words around an unfamiliar word that help you figure out its meaning. Look for definitions, synonyms, examples, or other helpful details.

1. Read the sentence: "The dinosaur fossil was prehistoric, meaning it existed thousands of years before written history was recorded." Underline the context clue phrase. What does prehistoric mean?

2. Read the sentence: "Because he was misunderstood, Leo felt like nobody truly listened to or understood his ideas."

What context clue helps explain misunderstood?

Section 6: Cumulative Review & Exam Practice

Read the passage and complete the questions.

Yesterday, Maya sprang out of bed early. She was excited because her class was visiting the natural history museum with Mr. Rivera, who is their science teacher.
