

FAMILY VOCABULARY

Fill in the blanks with the right word(s) from the bank.

niece - relatives - single-parent - nephew - generation - twins - household - ancestor - divorced - siblings - in-laws - teenager - grandparents - upbringing - cousin - eldest - newborn - extended - widow - foster

1. My brother has a daughter, so she is my _____.
2. After her husband died, she became a _____.
3. My parents raised me and my two _____ in a small town.
4. My sister's son is my _____.
5. Those related to you but who aren't your immediate family are your _____.
6. My parents got _____ when I was twelve, so I lived with my mother.
7. My grandma had a difficult _____ because she grew up during a war.
8. My parents are teachers, so there are always books around our _____.
9. My brother and his wife have just had a _____ baby boy.
10. My mother's parents are my _____.
11. My father's brother's daughter is my _____.
12. My husband and I often spend Christmas with my _____.
13. Sarah and Emma look almost exactly the same because they are _____.
14. My father is the _____ of four brothers and sisters.
15. A _____ family consists of a parent raising children without a partner.
16. My great-grandfather was an _____ who came to Argentina from Italy.
17. My grandparents belong to a different _____ from me, so we sometimes have very different opinions.
18. Their _____ family includes grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins.
19. At sixteen, he was a typical _____ who wanted more independence.
20. The child was placed with a _____ family until a permanent home could be found.

