A New Beginning at Bright Tech

Bright Tech is a small technology company. Last year, the company had some problems. Employees were often confused about their responsibilities, and communication between departments was not very good.

This year, the manager chose Daniel as the new team leader. Daniel is friendly, organized, and responsible. He believes that a good leader has to listen to employees and help them solve problems. On his first day, Daniel called a short meeting. He told the employees, "We have to work together. We don't have to agree about everything, but we have to respect each other."

Daniel also asked the employees to give suggestions. He said, "We may change some of our procedures if you have better ideas."

The employees liked his attitude. They thought Daniel was more approachable than the previous manager. They also believed he was as responsible as the best employees in the company.

Now, the team is working better. They communicate more often and help each other when there is a problem.

- 1 What problem did the company have last year?
 - a. Bad communication.
 - b. Too many vacations.
 - c. No customers.
- 2 What is Daniel's position?
 - a. Customer
 - b. Team leader.
 - c. New employee.
- 3 What does Daniel believe a good leader has to do?
 - a. Work alone.
 - b. Listen and help employees.
 - c. Give more homework.
- 4 What may Daniel change?
 - a. The employees' names.
 - b. Some procedures.
 - c. The company building.
- 5 How do employees feel about Daniel?
 - a. They like his attitude.
 - b. They don't understand him.
 - c. They want him to leave.
