

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES HALLOWEEN

Read the two sentences. Complete the second sentence with my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. Mary has got a witch hat. _____ witch hat is purple.
2. Tom has got a pumpkin. _____ pumpkin is very big.
3. We have got some Halloween costumes. _____ costumes are funny.
4. I have got a black cat. _____ cat is called Shadow.
5. The children have got some sweets. _____ sweets are in a bag.
6. You have got a Halloween mask. _____ mask is scary.
7. Anna has got a broom. _____ broom is old.
8. Jack has got a vampire costume. _____ costume is black.
9. The witch has got a magic hat. _____ hat is very tall.
10. We have got a Halloween party tonight. _____ party starts at eight o'clock.
11. I have got a pumpkin lantern. _____ lantern has a funny face.
12. Sarah has got a black dress. _____ dress is perfect for Halloween.
13. You have got some Halloween sweets. _____ sweets look delicious.
14. The ghosts have got a big house. _____ house is very old.
15. Peter has got a scary mask. _____ mask has two big eyes.
16. The spider has got eight legs. _____ legs are very small.
17. We have got some candles. _____ candles are orange.
18. I have got a witch costume. _____ costume is green and black.
19. The vampires have got a castle. _____ castle is on a hill.
20. Lucy has got a pumpkin. _____ pumpkin is on the table.

