

Name: _____

Grade: 4th

Date: _____

Cut the pictures and sentences. Put them in the correct order of the ship's passage through the Panama Canal.

|                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  The ship sails across Gatún Lake.                                        |  The locks fill with water to raise the ship to the level of Gatún Lake.  |  The ship enters the first lock (Atlantic or Pacific).              |  The ship leaves the canal and continues its journey.                    |
|  The ship arrives at the canal and is guided by tugboats to the entrance. |  The locks are emptied to lower the ship to the level of the other ocean. |  The ship enters the locks on the other side (Pacific or Atlantic). |  The Canal Control Center coordinates and authorizes the ship's passage. |