Interesting or interested

Some adjectives can be formed with either the -ing or -ed ending. But they have different meanings. You use the -ing ending to describe a person, object or a situation. The -ed ending is used to talk about the effect something has on a person, object or situation.

Look at these examples:

The film was so frightening, I couldn't watch it.

I was so frightened by the film I couldn't sleep at night.

3 Complete the sentences with the correct adjective.

Example: We are all tired because we did not sleep much last night.
