

Words with Similar Meanings

A Choose the correct options to complete the conversations.

1 A: I had a really ¹*vibrant* / vivid dream last night. I don't usually remember my dreams, but it was so realistic.

B: What was it about?

A: I met this woman with a really ²*vibrant* / vivid personality, and she was giving me a tour of a museum full of things from my childhood. It was so strange!

2 A: It was quite a/an ¹*emotional* / sentimental experience for Josh, looking through his grandma's old things.

B: Yes – he told me about it. He said he felt like there were a lot of things of ²*emotional* / sentimental value for him in that house that he just couldn't throw away.

3 A: My father and I found a really interesting, abstract painting in his loft. It was beautiful, but I couldn't work out whether it was supposed to suggest love or hate. I found it really ¹*vague* / ambiguous.

B: Did you ask your dad if he knew anything about the painting and what it meant?

A: I did! But he seemed to be intentionally ²*vague* / ambiguous.

4 A: Did you watch that documentary last night? It completely shocked me. I think the aim of it was to ¹*evoke* / awaken people to the fact that something needs to be done about the littering and damage to those beautiful beaches.

B: Yeah, I saw it. I just hope people take notice. Seeing the pristine sands at the beginning ²*evoked* / awakened such vivid memories from when I visited there when I was young. It looks completely different now though.