

I. Choose the correct phrasal verb.

1. Regardless of many difficulties, the researchers still continue carrying out / carrying on the new experiment.
2. I should have went to the airport to see him off / get him up, but I was afraid of crying in front of him.
3. We should work out / narrow down the number of suspects so that we won't waste time investigating all of them.
4. The frog suddenly turned out / turned into a princess.
5. We should quickly work into / work out a solution to serious environmental issues on the globe, or our long-term survival will be threatened.
6. I guess I've got a flu going on / coming on.
7. My mom takes me to school every morning. She drops me off / gets me off and goes to her office nearby.
8. It's hard for Lily to catch up with / keep up with her brother's speed of learning. She always has to try her best to remain the same speed with him.
9. They will go away / go around for a few days before going back on track in the office.
10. I can't have a meeting with you guys on Friday this week. Could you guys bring it above / bring it forward?

II: Write the correct phrasal verb.

catch up with	go off
join in	carry on
get round to	set out / off
take up	turn around
get up to	take off

1. We'll _____ at 6 a.m tomorrow and our destination is Phuket Island.
2. I'm going to a festival this weekend, do you want to _____?
3. He always procrastinates taking his laptop to a maintenance and repair center but today he has to _____ doing so.
4. He's been _____ many bad behaviors recently.
5. She _____ Linda when she found out that Linda was just pretending to be her close friend.
6. What you need to do after passing an exam is to _____ learning and preparing for the others. Don't rest on your laurels.
7. She suddenly realized that she hadn't locked the door so she _____ to lock it.
8. I hate the feeling of sitting on a plane when it _____.
9. Jane decides to _____ a new sport this summer.
10. The robber ran fast but the police managed to _____ him.

III: Write the correct phrasal verbs.

1. Look _____ ! There's a training coming!
2. I decided to pull _____ of the game at the last minute because I'm not satisfied with the rules of the game.
3. My computer is always breaking _____ whenever I need it the most.
4. My father encouraged me to go _____ that chess competition, and I always feel thankful that he did so.

5. Getting up early in the morning is a positive habit for our physical and mental health so I will take _____ it right from tomorrow.
6. You can't put _____ telling her the truth anymore. Say it right now!
7. If you spend enough time researching the information for this presentation, you will finally find it _____.
8. Bob often comes _____ creative suggestions when he's happy.
9. The dishes my mom cooks usually give _____ attractive smells.
10. Stuart realized some mechanic problems with his car so he pulled _____ to check them.
11. I guess I've run _____ a dog! Let's go off and see.
12. Thousands of people are making _____ the biggest festival of the year.
13. Lee has just arrived at the airport and I'm going to pick him _____.
14. Mai never foots the bills on time so the supplier has cut _____ source of electricity in her house.
15. I can't put _____ this noise anymore!. It has been annoying me not one, not two, but 5 weeks!
16. He used to be the best warrior in the world but today he is knocked _____ by a younger warrior.
17. Sometimes I forget to plug my printer _____, so it doesn't work and just gives the signal for hours.
18. Wait a second, I'm putting you _____ the marketing service.
19. Don't forget to turn _____ the air-conditioner before leaving the room.
20. The food has gone _____, you can't eat it anymore.

IV: Match the phrasal verb with their meaning.

Phrasal verb	Meaning
1. hand out	a. to clean the surface of something, such as a table, with a cloth ->
2. live up to sth	b. to be as good as something ->
3. wipe sth down	c. to take the place of something lost or damaged or to compensate for something bad with something good ->
4. get down to sth	d. to admit that you were wrong or that you have been defeated ->
5. back down	e. to give something to each person in a group or place ->
6. put sth/sb down	f. to finish, use, or sell all of something, so that there is none left ->
7. run out	g. to start to direct your efforts and attention towards something ->
8. make up for	h. to put an object that you are holding onto the floor or onto another surface, or to stop carrying someone ->
9. make for somewhere	i. to start doing a particular job or activity ->
10. take up sth	k. to go in the direction of a place or thing ->

V: Choose the correct answer.

1. Put ... what you're doing and listen to me!

- A. away B. off C. down D. into

2. Please take care ... my dogs while I'm away

- A. over B. of C. with D. in

3. Some scientists have founded ... the genetic structure of this animal

- A. out B. of C. that D. into

4. How often do you catch ... your friends?

- A. out B. on C. of D. up with

5. I love shopping but trying ... clothes is such inconvenient!

- A. off B. on C. over D. with

6. Don't throw those apples They are still fresh.

- A. away B. off C. in D. with

7. Take your time to read my book. You don't have to give it ... immediately.

- A. on B. to C. back D. up

8. The finance department puts ... some ideas to invest into real estate

- A. forward B. off C. up with D. down

9. The fact that the meeting was called ... in last minutes made me frustrated.

- A. out B. upon C. on D. off

10. I ran ... my ex the other day and I chose to ignore him.

- A. out B. on C. into D. over

Bài 7: Match verbs with preposition to make correct phrasal verbs and fill in the blank.

Verb	go / fill / make / wake / take / fall / take / drop / live / hang
Preposition	after / up / out / up / in / out / up to / in / up / on

1. I _____ at 6am everyday.
2. My brother _____ my dad. They have the same eyes and chin.
3. Please _____ this application form for joining the club
4. His cooking was delicious and I'll never _____ that.
5. Helen _____ love with a stranger. It was love at first sight.
6. I got into drugs because I was _____ with the naughty kids
7. Sometimes we have arguments but quickly _____ after that
8. If you want to lose weight, remember to _____ a diet!
9. To _____ a sport can help you pass time and become stronger
10. _____ whenever you're in the area