

Comparative and Superlative Adjectives: The Top Gear Race Challenge

1. Pre-Reading & Prediction Activity 🌐

A. Predict the Winner

Which transport do you think will be the fastest way to get across London? Circle your answer and write one reason why.

My Reason: _____

2. Reading Comprehension: Race Tracker 🏍️♀️

Instructions: Read the stories about Jeremy (Boat), Richard (Bike), and James (Car). Write the first letter of the person who did each thing: J (Jeremy), R (Richard), or Ja (James).

Event	Who?
1. Who was asked to show a piece of paper (a permit) by the police?	_____
2. Who went much faster in the later part of his journey (up to 70 mph)?	_____
3. Who was happy to see a terrible traffic jam?	_____
4. Who went more slowly in the later part of his journey due to traffic?	_____
5. Whose journey was seven miles longer than the others'?	_____
6. Who decided not to do something illegal (like cycling through a red light)?	_____
7. Who got slightly lost and had to turn around?	_____

3. Post-Reading Grammar & Comparison

A. Spot the Mistake! (Editing)

Instructions: Read the sentences. Find the mistake in grammar and write the correct word or phrase next to the sentence. If it's correct, write a check mark (✓).

Sentence	Correct (✓) or Wrong (X)?	Correction
1. What's the quicker way to get across London?	_____	_____
2. Driving is more boring than going by train.	_____	_____
3. It was the more exciting journey I've ever had.	_____	_____
4. The boat was nearly as fast than the bike.	_____	_____
5. The worst time of day to travel in London is the rush hour.	_____	_____
6. Women drive more careful than men.	_____	_____

B. Group Comparison Speaking Challenge

Instructions: Work with a partner. For each group, first use the adjective in bold to make a superlative sentence, then make a comparative sentence. Explain your reason.

1. Adjective: dangerous

- Items: cycling - driving - riding a motorbike

- Superlative:

- Comparative:

2. Adjective: relaxing

- Items: driving - flying - travelling by train

- Superlative:

 - Comparative:

3. Adjective: difficult
- Items: sleeping on a coach - sleeping on a plane - sleeping on a train
 - Superlative:

 - Comparative:

Homework

Instructions: Write a short article (about 100 words) about transport in your town or city. You must use at least FIVE comparative and FIVE superlative sentences.