

Activity 3 –Diana’s Death

On the evening of August 31, 1997, Diana was dining privately in the Ritz Hotel in Paris. (1) ----- 11:30 that night, as she left the hotel she (2) ----- by paparazzi, despite the fact that significant security precautions had been taken, including the use of a decoy vehicle, which left from the front of the hotel.

The death of Princess Diana was immediately (3)----- by an unprecedented outpouring of grief from all over the world.

Initially, the accident had been blamed on her French driver who may have been exceeding the speed limit to avoid the paparazzi. The inquest jury ruled that both Paul and the paparazzi chasing Diana were responsible for the crash (4)----- “gross negligence.”

The death of Diana also ruled “unlawful killings”—the court equivalent of manslaughter. In addition, the jury ruled that Diana might have survived the crash had she been wearing a (5) -----.

No one was charged in the death of Diana, as the driver was himself killed. Several members of the paparazzi (6) ----- immediately after the accident, but were released.

1- On AT In

2- was hounded hounded was hounding

3- follow following fallowed

4- so due to when

5- seatbelt jacket sunglasses

6- was questioned questioned were questioned

