

MATCH! DRAG THE PICTURES!

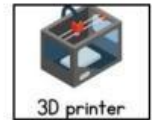

Name / Class : _____

Date : _____

A place on the internet. We can use it to find information, read news, or learn new things.

A screen connected to a computer. It shows pictures, videos, and information.

A watch with smart features. It can show the time, count steps, and receive messages.

A way to communicate with other people online. We can send messages, pictures, and emojis.

Connecting computers and devices around the world. We use it to search, learn, communicate, and watch videos.

It makes objects from digital designs. It can print things such as toys, models, and tools.

A small camera connected to a computer. We use it for video calls and online meetings.

A device for watching programs and videos. We can use it to watch news, movies, and shows.

A device used to control video games. It has buttons that help us play games.

A device or app for listening to music. We can use it to play our favorite songs.

A small device for storing files. We can use it to save and transfer photos, documents, and videos.

It shows pictures or videos on a large screen or wall. It is often used in classrooms and meetings.

