

LAMINE YAMAL: A YOUNG FOOTBALL STAR

Read the text and complete the activities.

Lamine Yamal was born on July 13, 2007, in Spain. His father is from Morocco, and his mother is from Equatorial Guinea. He started playing football for a local club called CF La Torreta.

In 2014, Yamal joined La Masia, FC Barcelona's famous youth academy. He developed quickly and often played with older players. On April 29, 2023, he made his debut for Barcelona's first team. He was only 15 years old and became the youngest player to play for the club.

In October 2023, Yamal scored against Granada and became the youngest goal scorer in La Liga history. In 2024, he won the Kopa Trophy, an award for the best young footballer in the world.

Yamal made his senior debut for Spain in September 2023. He scored in Spain's 7-1 victory against Georgia and became the youngest player and goal scorer in the history of the Spanish national team. He later helped Spain win Euro 2024 and received the Young Player of the Tournament award.

During the 2026 FIFA World Cup, Yamal scored his first World Cup goal against Saudi Arabia. He also played an important role in the semifinal against France. In the final, Spain defeated Argentina 1-0 after extra time and became world champions.
