

Baking

Sarah is a cheerful girl. She loves to bake cookies with her family. Every weekend, she puts on her apron and gathers the ingredients. She uses flour, sugar, eggs, butter and chocolate chips to make delicious cookies.

Last Saturday, Sarah and her mum decided to have a bake sale at their neighbourhood park. They wanted to raise money for a local charity. Sarah helped to bake cookies and cupcakes. She also helped to pack the sweets in small bags.

Many people came to the bake sale. They bought the cookies and gave kind words. Sarah felt very happy because she could help others and do something good for her community.
