

Everyday objects

1  Match definitions 1–9 with the words in the box.

board game bottle calculator musical instrument paper
ruler socks sunglasses toothbrush

- 1 You use this to draw lines and check distances.
- 2 A guitar and piano are types of this.
- 3 People wear these on their feet, under their shoes.
- 4 You wear these to protect your eyes from the sun.
- 5 You carry water or other liquids in this.
- 6 You use this to do maths.
- 7 Chess and Monopoly are types of this.
- 8 You use this to clean your teeth.
- 9 You write on this with a pen or pencil.

a- BOARD GAME

b- BOTTLE

c- CALCULATOR

d- MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

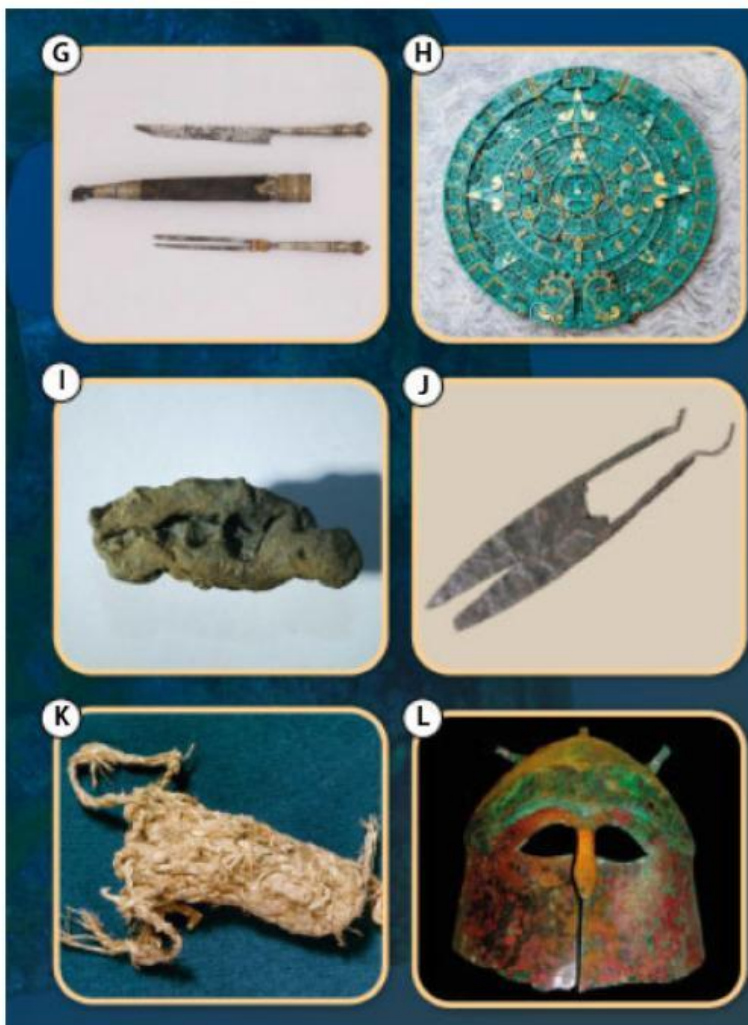

e- PAPER

f- RULER

g- SOCKS

h- SUNGLASSES

i- TOOTHBRUSH

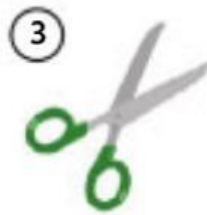

3 Match words 1–12 with ancient objects A–L.

comb F

key

scissors

calendar

chewing gum

knife and fork

spoon

dice

alarm clock

mirror

purse

helmet

1- _____

2- _____

3- _____

4- _____

5- _____

6- _____

7- _____

8- _____

9- _____

10- _____

11- _____

12- _____

Complete the sentences about the ancient objects with the words in the box.

alarm clock chewing gum comb
dice key knife spoon

- 1 The Greek philosopher Plato invented the (...) because his students often arrived late for class.
- 2 People first used a (...) to eat soup. Later, they used a (...) to cut meat, and only later a fork.
- 3 In Roman times, only rich people carried a (...) because other people didn't need to lock their doors
- 4 Thousands of years ago, people used a (...) to look good, and also to remove insects from their hair!
- 5 In ancient times, people didn't use (...) to play games, they used them to predict the future.
- 6 This piece of (...) is over 5,000 years old, but you can still see the tooth marks of a teenager in it!

a- ALARM CLOCK

b- CHEWING GUM

c- COMB

d- DICE

e- KEY

f- KNIFE

g- SPOON