

Nominization Practice (C1 Level)

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence using nominalization. Change the verb or adjective in bold into a noun form. Make any other grammatical changes necessary to keep the sentence correct and preserve its meaning.

1. The scientists analyzed the results carefully.

The scientists conducted a careful _____ of the results.

2. The government failed to solve the problem.

The government's _____ to solve the problem caused concern.

3. The researchers discovered a new species.

The _____ of a new species surprised the scientific community.

4. The manager was responsible for organizing the event.

The manager took _____ for organizing the event.

5. The population grew rapidly over the past decade.

There was rapid _____ in the population over the past decade.

6. The experiment was accurate.

The experiment demonstrated a high level of _____.

7. The students developed a new strategy to solve the issue.

The _____ of a new strategy helped solve the issue.

8. The new policy was effective in reducing pollution.

The _____ of the new policy helped reduce pollution.