

21 22 Which TWO points do the speakers make about the terms 'ethical' and 'sustainable' fashion?

- A. Their definitions keep changing.
- B. People think they mean the same thing.
- C. The term 'eco-friendly' is preferable.
- D. They are often used imprecisely.
- E. Companies should avoid using them on clothing labels.

Questions 23–24

23 24 Which TWO claims about wool production do the speakers disagree with?

- A. Sheep are generally well-treated.
- B. Wool is easy to recycle.
- C. Wool is a long-lasting fabric.
- D. Wool production involves few chemicals.
- E. Sheep do less environmental damage than other livestock.

Questions 25–30

What comment do the speakers make about each of the following semi-synthetic fabrics?

- A. The production process is fuel efficient.
- B. It is the least sustainable of alternative fabrics.
- C. Production costs are high.
- D. It provides additional health benefits.
- E. It is not durable in the long-term.
- F. It needs to be produced in a certain way to be sustainable.
- G. Chemicals required for production can be reused.
- H. This is from a wholly sustainable source.

25 Lyocell _____

26 Cupro _____

27 Bamboo _____

28 EcoVero _____

29 Cork _____

30 Hemp _____