PART A: CLOZE PASSAGE

A NIGHT DURING THE FLOOD

Read the passage below and choose the best answer for each blank.

Last December, my family experienced one of the worst floods in our village. Heavy rain had been falling (1) three days without stopping. The river near our house overflowed and water quickly entered our home.

My father remained calm (2) the situation was frightening. He asked us to pack some clothes and important documents. My mother prepared food while my brother and I helped move furniture to (3) higher place.

Soon, rescue workers arrived (4) boats to evacuate the villagers. They instructed everyone to stay together and follow their directions carefully. Although many people felt anxious, the rescuers did their jobs (5).

At the temporary relief centre, volunteers provided blankets, food and drinking water. The experience taught me that disasters can happen (6) any time. Therefore, we should always be prepared and learn (7) to respond during emergencies.

I will never forget that night because it showed me the importance of courage, cooperation and (8) for one another. Despite losing some belongings, my family was grateful (9) everyone was safe. It was a difficult experience, (10) it made us stronger.
